WARSAW, POLAND (UPI) -- ROMAN CATHOLIC PRIEST JOZEF GLEMP, IN AN APPARENT APPEAL TO UNDERGROUND SOLIDARITY LEADERS CALLING FOR DEMONSTRATIONS ON THE UNION'S FOURTH ANNIVERSARY, URGED POLES TO AVOID ANTAGONIZING THE GOVERNMENT.

GLEMP ALSO TOLD SOME 300,000 PEOPLE AT THE JASNA GORA MONASTERY AT CZESTOCHOWA SUNDAY THAT POLAND HAD CHANGED SINCE SOLIDARITY WAS CRUSHED BY MARTIAL LAW AND HUNDREDS OF UNION ACTIVISTS IMPRISONED.

LATER SUNDAY, PRO-SOLIDARITY PRIEST JERZY POPIELUSZKO TOLD A CHEERING CROWD OF MORE THAN 120,000 PEOPLE AT WARSAW'S ST. STANISLAW KOSTKA THAT THE IDEALS OF THE OUTLAWED UNION WERE STILL ALIVE.

"SOLIDARITY WAS NOT INFILTED A MORTAL WOUND," POPIELUSZKO SAID IN REFERENCE TO THE UNION THAT WAS OUTLAWED AFTER MARTIAL LAW WAS IMPOSED IN 1981.

POPIELUSZKO, WHO HAS BEEN THREATENED WITH A TRIAL FOR HIS ANTI-STATE SERMONS, ALSO SAID THAT SOLIDARITY WAS "STRIVING TOWARD FREEDOM, TRUTH AND JUSTICE."

"THAT IS WHY MARTIAL LAW WAS IMPOSED AGAINST THE WHOLE NATION BUT NOT AGAINST THE UNION ALONE," POPIELUSZKO TOLD THE CROWD, WHO GAVE HIM A STANDING OVATION AND RAISED V-SIGNS FOR VICTORY.

POPIELUSZKO ALSO URGED THE COMMUNIST GOVERNMENT TO OPEN NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE BANNED TRADE UNION.

"THE AUTHORITIES SHOULD SIT DOWN AT THE NEGOTIATING TABLE WITH GENUINE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE NATION," HE SAID AND DESCRIBED AS "ARTIFICIAL" THE COMMUNIST PARTY-CONTROLLED UNIONS THAT WERE FORMED TO REPLACE SOLIDARITY.

GLEMP'S APPEAL IN CZESTOCHOWA, 140 MILES SOUTH OF WARSAW, APPEARED TO BE DIRECTED AT UNDERGROUND SOLIDARITY LEADERS WHO HAVE CALLED FOR NATIONWIDE DEMONSTRATIONS ON THE UNION'S FOURTH ANNIVERSARY FRIDAY.

"A LOT OF (THE PEOPLE'S) DEMANDS HAVE NOT YET BEEN MET BUT TENSION IS WEAKENING AND SOURCES OF HATRED ARE DISAPPEARING," SAID GLEMP, ASSUMING THE ROLE OF PEACEMAKER BETWEEN THE OUTLAWED UNION AND THE GOVERNMENT.

"TWO YEARS AGO, I CALLED FOR THE RELEASE OF LECH WALESKI FROM THIS PLACE," HE SAID. THE SOLIDARITY LEADER WAS IMPRISONED ON DEC. 13, 1981, THE SAME DAY MARTIAL LAW WAS IMPOSED AND RELEASED ONE YEAR LATER.

GLEMP ALSO SAID 630 POLITICAL PRISONERS HAD BEEN FREED UNDER A RECENT GOVERNMENT AMNESTY, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS FURTHER PROOF OF THE GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS AT NORMALIZATION.

HIS SERMON MARKED THE 600TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BLACK MADONNA AT THE MONASTERY, THE NATION'S MOST FAMOUS RELIGIOUS SHRINE.
